The philosophy of the Corsica

The Corsica is a meeting of friends from all walks of life and all of Europe. The idea is to end up on a magic, rebellious and beautiful island to share moments of friendships and convivialities.

The campsite offers a swimming pool and various activities. You also have the beach. (Water temperature in May: 19 °)

All the circuits are carefully studied to offer you the best of our villages, our roads, and our landscapes. Sometimes it will be a bit physical, but what a joy to meet at the end of the day, in front of a good beer, to tell the goat you avoided, the pig that stole your sandwich and the fantastic postcards that crashed your retina .

Corsica in Indian are two myths that meet, two stories, two legends to form only one imperishable memory !!

"La Corsica" is an opportunity to let go for a week and tighten the friendships that unite us!

Those who have already made the "Corsica" remember the breathtaking landscapes, the atmosphere, the friendship, the sharing but also the healthy fatigue at the end of the day ...
